Perrier-Jouët – Artistic Expression of Champagne

The champagne house Perrier- Jouët was founded in 1811 by Pierrer Nicolas Perrier and Adele Jouët. Its combination of tradition-bred expertise, exceptional vineyard and labor of love has resulted in a house style with a unique floral tone that has been handed down through successive cellar masters.

Passionate about art, the house was inspired by the work of Émile Gallé, a renowned master of Art Nouveau, and in 1902 entrusted him with the task of creating a unique decoration for its premium magnums. The famous white anemone decoration was then adopted for the house's well-known Belle Epoque vintage.

A Hara Museum long-standing tradition, Champagne Evening, is offered every Wednesday from 18:00. As a special treat, for the duration of the exhibition Mika Ninagawa: Self-image, guests partaking of the Champagne Evening will be served Perrier-Jouët champagne.
